WORDS FROM OUR PRESIDENT - CHRIS BRANSON

We had a brief visit from Past DG Jane Owen and husband David. Jane is an extremely busy person and spent a short time with us this evening to present Past President Kevin Tiggemann and our members with an award for excellent achievements in 2019-2020. Past DG Jane addressed the meeting and sang our praises and advised us that KPRC was the only club in 9500 to receive a "Platinum Certificate of Appreciation" from RI President Mark Daniel Maloney, in the year of "Rotary Connects the World". Well done KPRC.

Kevin reminded us all about our upcoming visit to the Tonsley Precinct, and dinner afterwards at the Marion Hotel. More updates on this visit closer to the date.

Chris Weyland from the Fellowship Committee announced our Christmas lunch will be held on Sunday December 13th at the West Lakes Golf Club.

Congratulations seemed to be the theme of the night with the announcement of David Simpson as the new Chair for Probus Australia and South Pacific. Well done David!

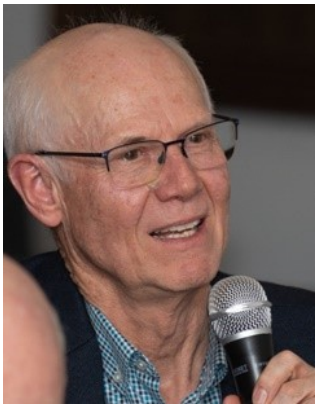

Our guest speaker was the one and only Kevin Tiggemann sporting his trademark bow tie!! Kevin's topic was titled "Artificially Enhanced Economy". Since 2016 Kevin has been assisting people in business with credit management. He also covered the effects of COVID, changes in bankruptcy laws providing relief for Aussies struggling with debt and various other financial topics. His presentation took me back to my banking days. Kevin opened our eyes to some of the pitfalls if you are not diligent in your business dealings.

Don't forget committee meetings next Tues 6th October.

Cheers

President Chris

4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
