Then and Now

Chindogu originated in Japan and is characterized by the invention of ingenious everyday gadgets that seem to be ideal solutions to particular problems, but which, in fact, cause more problems than they solve.[1] https://en.wikipedia.org

WORDS FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Hi Everyone,

A big 'Thank you' to Paul Denley for holding the fort and taking over for me as I arrived late to the meeting. Sorry about that! A bit tardy of me.

Good to see some new faces tonight including guests Ted and Irene, Mike and Trish (parents of our guest speaker) and Paul Fox.

John spoke to us about the Bunnings BBQ to be held on New Year's Day. He reminded everyone who is participating in this event to complete the online 'I'm Alert Food Safety' course and to bring a copy of it to the BBQ. You will not be able to assist on the day if you do not have proof that you have completed this course. John also requires participants car registration numbers so he can forward them to Bunnings prior to New Years Day to allow us to have unlimited time parking at the site without incurring a fine.

Kevin reminded us that next week (15/12) is our last meeting for the year. It is a business networking meeting and suggested we bring a guest to showcase our Club. Lainie Anderson will be our guest speaker.

Rob Stocker gave a detailed update on where things were at with the website progress. Things seem to be going to plan and it will be good to have everything covered under one umbrella. Rob handed out a survey for the format of the Krier for everyone to participate in and give our thoughts and ideas. Jenny Clarke is going to hand over the reins of Bulletin Editor to Rob Stocker shortly. We will advise everyone when that takes place for communication purposes.

What a breath of fresh air our guest speaker Lisa was. What a life she has led since being an exchange student to Brazil about 19 years ago. She has lead a varied and exciting life since then with university study and her role with the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, and raising two young children with her partner. She has lived in some challenging and interesting parts of the world and is now in Canberra after having to leave Timor Leste earlier this year. Lisa also dipped her toe into the world of politics, a very brave move for one so young! Lisa spoke highly of her wonderful experience as an exchange student, and the international friendships she developed through the opportunity she was given. Lisa said it was a very authentic experience not at all like a Contiki Tour. She has had a huge number of varied and wonderful life experiences throughout her young life and I'm sure we will see and hear much more about Lisa Clutterham in the coming years.

See you all next week for the last meeting of the year, let's make it a good one!

Cheers

President Chris

WEDNESDAY, JAN 1ST 2021

Address: James Schofield Dr, Adelaide Airport SA 5950

HAVE YOU COMPLETED YOUR 'I'M ALERT FOOD HYGIENE' COURSE YET ?

There are only days to go before the upcoming Bunnings BBQ on the first of January and it is a good idea to complete it before the Christmas rush.

* To participate, you must bring a printed copy of your 'I'm Alert...' certificate to the BBQ

* To avoid a parking fine, please also forward a copy of your car registration number to John so that he has time to forward it to Bunnings.

John Jackson

'BACKPACKS 4 SA KIDS'

'Here are some photos of the Christmas presents for Backpack4kids I have been dropping off every 2 days for the last 2 weeks.'
