KPR Presidents Report 2015/16

KPRGood to great?

In this Report, I want to take the opportunity to look forward and speculate on what we as custodians for KPR need to put in place to take OUR Rotary Club from "Good to Great" over the foreseeable future and maintain that into the longer term.

"Good to Great" is the title of a renowned business management book by Jim Collins. Start with 1465 companies. Examine their performance over 40 years. Find the 11 companies that become great. Find out why some companies make that leap....and why others don't. We want KPR to be similarly great and thrive for next 40 years.

In looking forward, in my opinion for KPR to be a great club we need to be sustainable in the long term...we need to have a clear view on what is our vision as a club and membership (we need review and clarification of this)

have robust sustainable projects(local and international) which are a key to retaining and recruiting members(evidenced by recent events) have succession of our membership that will result in strong membership and leadership ongoing have an awareness of ongoing fundraising in conjunction with distribution of funds that are raised to the chosen project destinations or in fact raised for a nominated specific purpose.

support of this group and it may be a possible interest area for some of our upcoming new members.

Our WBSC Venue's key people Bob and Kate and more recently Sam. We are very well looked after which you would only see from the inside in having ongoing dealings with Bob and Kate. Nothing has been too much trouble to get the best result for KPR. We also have helped WBSC over many years with them, but we do have a wonderful reciprocal relationship.

And thankyou to all other Kidman Parkers who have contributed in their own selected areas....and just quietly got the job done

As a final thankyou, I thank my wife Helen for her ongoing support of my role with KPR while balancing the D9500 role of Alumni Chair and a few other pursuits. Thankyou...it is appreciated.

I am excited by what Tom Bunnik and his excellent forthcoming team will achieve in 16/17, and add into the mix the vitality and enthusiasm of our incoming new members.

Warren Hobbs
