WORDS FROM OUR PRESIDENT

During our last meeting, guest speaker, David Hunter from Largs Bay Rotary Club, gave us some take-home value on probably the most popular social media platform, Facebook. For the future, I believe the Club's Facebook page needs to be explored further. It has the potential, for example, as a vehicle to promote our Bookmart, particularly within local postcodes.

As for our next two meetings, there are many aspects of our club to evaluate. I encourage utilising this week as an opportunity for the committees to brainstorm ideas for the following week's club assembly. Remember, as I have said previously, this is your club so have your say.

Our first network dinner meeting for 2020 will be on the 18 February with guest speaker Mark Bourchier, a recent OAM recipient. Please consider inviting new people to our club; remember someone invited you. These meetings provide many opportunities including the chance to grow our membership.

See you all Tuesday,

Yours in Rotary

Kevin Tiggy

GUEST SPEAKER - DAVID HUNTER

"FACE BOOK ….WHAT IS IT, WHAT FOR AND HOW?

Facebook can be very polarising with some embracing the technology with varying degrees of gusto while others shun it as either irrelevant to their lives or an anathema to be avoided at all costs. David Hunter, who owns RD Computers in Port Adelaide and opened his first Facebook account in 2014, falls into the former camp. He spoke to us about the value of utilising social media, and especially Facebook, as a vehicle for promoting RCKP events and activities, enlisting new members and attracting new 'Bookmart' customers.

David described his own experiences and successes that he attributed largely to Facebook including increasing the number of members attending the Rotary Club of Port Adelaide meetings and attracting entries from as far afield as NSW for the Port Adelaide Art Show.

After outlining its history, David recommended that we embrace Facebook as it has penetrated deeply into the fabric of our society and is the most widely used social media platform even among the hotly contested under 35 age demographic. It provides the opportunity to reach a diverse and targeted audience and is mostly free or in the case of advertising, generally enables a very cost-effective strategy.

David recommended several strategies to help showcase RCKP most effectively. He suggests a strategy and plan posts rather than adopt an ad hoc approach. For example, plan a series of events. Posts, articles and visual content with an emotional pull tend to be shared more often and receive more responses. Similarly, using a diverse range of multimedia formats adds interest. It is also a good idea to feature local projects and engaging visuals of club members enjoying what they are doing and interacting with the community. A bookshop page could be included and a monthly 'Book Corner'. When advertising, David endorsed identifying the most appropriate postcodes and targeting audiences.

GUEST SPEAKER - DAVID HUNTER P2

Whilst David acknowledged that social media is misused by some participants and that readers and viewers need to be discerning, he likes an open platform and free speech. He suggested concerns about security including privacy, identity theft and various phishing scams when online can be largely addressed.

A SELECTION OF DAVID'S TIPS FOR IMPROVING SECURITY WHEN ONLINE -

* be wary of online applications for competitions etc
* be very selective about, or completely avoid sharing personal details.
* use two-factor identification
* review privacy settings.
* passwords should be kept private and include capital letters, numbers and symbols.
* Install anti-virus software
* limit your use of public WIFI.
* take advantage of Facebook settings where appropriate to block unwanted users, messages and advertisements
* Facebook incorporates Messenger for more private communication; remember to check who will see the message.
* Finally, don't forget to log out of your account.

BOOKMART NEWS

Thank you for working hard over this last week culling our old yellowing and damaged stock.

The Communication Book has worked very well and everyone was aware of what needed to be done. We will continue to use this book so that everyone is aware of the current issues. Please read this when starting your shift and feel free to write in this book.

Rob has done an excellent job in erecting new shelving in the shed so there is space for the books as well as the barbecue gear. He has also started shelving that can store our culled books and books for Lesotho.

As Treasurer, Rob has given us a monthly summary of money taken at our Woodville West Bookmart. The summary is November $2167, December $720 and January $759. Of course there have been times when we were closed due to the two week holiday break and hot weather. The daily read out of funds taken can be seen in the store/staff room.

Remember that we have a Bi Monthly meeting at 10am next Wednesday, 5th February. This is for the volunteers who work at the WLL and Woodville West Reserve as well as our own Rotary members.

I hope many of you will come, supporting each other including our volunteers. We need to have an open discussion and you may be able to suggest ways we could improve.

We will have a morning tea following our meeting.

Thank you everyone.

Jenny Harris
