What I really want

Words from our President

After last week's committee meetings, I would like to share with you in advance our board's proposal to donate $10,000 to RAWCS (Rotary Australia World Community Service). The funds will support those affected as a result of the bushfires. Our board believes that maximizing every dollar being directed to those most in need is essential. This will be discussed as part of Club Assembly on Tuesday.

Also, we will be completing our AGM on Tuesday, now that we have had the financials audited from last year. Treasurer Rob Chambers will give a full report of our financial position including an update for this Rotary year.

Feel free to ask questions at our Club Assembly. You may have a really great Idea for our club or suggestions on how we can better serve our community and our members. Have your say this Tuesday.

A reminder that for our first network dinner meeting will be the following week, the 18th of February with guest speaker, Mark Bourchier, a recent OAM recipient. Bring your partner and also please consider inviting new people to our club. These meetings are a good opportunity to help grow our membership.

See you all Tuesday

Yours in Rotary

Kevin Tiggy

Jenny Harris

- Bookmart
  - See Jenny's report in this week's Krier for details

Warren Hobbs

- Admin
  - Reminder that for the coming network meeting tables will be colour-coded to foster opportunities for social interaction

Garth Palmer

- Fellowship
  - Art Gallery Meal and Tour, Friday 6th March
  - If you have any suggestions for a winery visit, please let Ian or Garth know
  - Investigating May for a golf event
  - Beginning to plan the 'Guess Who's Coming to Dinner' event

John Jackson

- Community
  - Consideration of a craft market raised concerns that return for effort may be dubious
  - Keen to see an upgrade of Smith Reserve to increase visitation
  - Keen to hear from anyone with ideas for a hands-on project now that the epilepsy project is coming to a conclusion

Ed King

- International
  - Concerns about containing the polio virus following outbreaks linked to poor sanitation in developing regions
  - Ghana Project—investigating Ghanaian Rotary Clubs with sanitation project experience
  - RAWCS can assist previous guest speaker, Nina Murad, in her quest to improve sanitation facilities in Kurdish Iraq

BOOKMART NEWS

It was pleasing to see quite a number of our volunteers from WLL and our Rotary members at our Bi Monthly meeting. Here are some of the points that were discussed or resolved.

Rob will erect a sign for our new Bookmart and put it up at WLL along with some flyers.

Boxes from WLL can be brought by courier to Woodville so we don't have to cart them ourselves. Store them in the WLL own Store Room.

We will have sales days when we will sell off excess stock. I am already getting stock ready for a children's book sale event.

A Sub Committee for promoting our site was formed. Those on the subcommittee are Karen Feind, Rose Willington, Janet Johnson, Chris and Clive Turner and Darlene Green. They will meet next Wednesday 12th Feb at 10am at our Woodville Bookmart . If you would like to join this Sub Committee you are very welcome.

Advertising on Facebook is also being pursued.

Minor Issues

Those working at Woodville please make sure that you shut the credit card machine down at the end of the day. To do this, take it out of its cradle and hold your finger on the red button until you can see this is happening, then put it in the chosen spot.

When you are on duty please leave the padlock for the shed on the chain. You will need to lock it before you can remove the key.

Culling Week has gone well and we will do the same process for cleaning shelves and books.

Books culled need to have hard covers removed. There are 2 cutting boards to prevent cutting the table cloth. There is a spot in the shed for these culled books.

Valuable books – how do we recognise and value them? Further discussion needed.

Future Plans- discuss with the council the possibility of upgrading the playground in the future. We could help finance some of this. This would be a way we could give back to the local community.

The Next Bi Monthly meeting will be Wednesday 1st April.
