WORDS FROM OUR PRESIDENT

The first business networking dinner meeting for 2020 was certainly well attended with 11 guests; several have expressed interest in our club. The positive feedback from club members and guests attending the meeting was very encouraging.

I have a proposed new member and in accordance with the rules we give all members a 7 days notification of the proposal which appears below.

Our guest speaker Mark Bourchier certainly didn't disappoint; he was probably one of our best speakers for this Rotary year. Mark delivered a very informative presentation on the relevance of Legacy for the on-going needs of the dependent members of families affected as a result of Australia's war involvement.

This week is a vocational visit and includes a BBQ dinner and presentation hosted by David Hunter at Port Adelaide Historical Society. As such there is no meeting at West Beach Surf Life Saving Club.

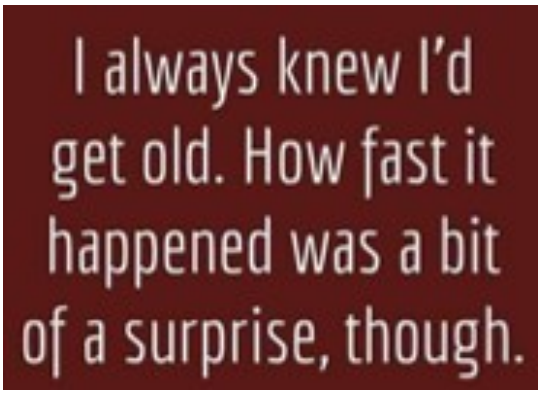

For those attending, see you all Tuesday

Yours in Rotary

Kevin Tiggy

TIGGY'S THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Proposed New Member:

Phil Ransome of SA Business Advisory Service has accepted an invitation to join the Rotary Club of Kidman Park.

As such, this notification is for any member to advise President Kevin of any objections within 7 days.

GUEST SPEAKER - MARK BOURCHIER OAM

Introduction

Mark Bourchier, a horticulturist by profession, has been involved in the field of ornamental horticulture for more than 30 years, working both in nurseries and landscape gardening. He presented, as a garden show talkback host on the ABC, 5DN and 5AD for 23 years and as horticultural advisor on various garden shows on Adelaide TV Channels 7 and 10. He was a long serving member of the South Australian Nurseryman's Association Committee and is a Past President of the Horticultural Media Association.

Mark now heads the Pulteney Foundation as its Director. A passionate Pulteney Grammar Old Scholar himself, Mark has been President of the Pulteney Old Scholars' Association since 2015.

Mark's interests, outside of Pulteney life, are many and varied.

A keen supporter of Veterans Affairs, Mark was invited to become a Legatee in 2006. He is a past president (2015-17) of Legacy in South Australia and has been chairman of the Legacy Board since 2016. In addition, he is the chair of the Board's Marketing & Fundraising Committee and a member of other Legacy committees.

Through his roles as President of The Victoria League and Chairman of The Joint Commonwealth Societies in South Australia, he is actively involved in the identification and selection of, and funding disbursement to, humanitarian projects in third world Commonwealth countries.

LEGACY
For the past, the present & the future

Mark is a of member of the Naval, Military & Air Force Club and a number of motoring clubs, reflecting his interest in a variety of English marques of the vintage and classic eras.s

Mark is married to Jo and with their two sons, Ted and Will; they live in Adelaide.

Via Warren Hobbs

Legacy

Mark explained that Legacy was founded in Melbourne around 1920 and established in South Australia in 1925. At that time only men were members and membership was by invitation only.

Legacy cares for the dependents of people who have given their lives or health after service overseas. There are 48 clubs in Australia and 1 in London catering for 5000 members and 53000 beneficiaries have served overseas. In South Australia there are children under the age of 18, people with disabilities and widows. In 2015 the charter of Legacy was changed to include support for the dependents of those who suffer from PTSD.

There are a number of ways that Legacy provides support including providing home maintenance services, legal advice, advocacy, food when needed and facilitating social interaction. Mentorship is available for children, and Legacy supports their education and extra curricular activities, as well as contributing to dental care.

Legacy spends $3 million dollars per year in South Australia. Other than a $100 000 contribution from the state government, the rest is funded by Legacy mainly though interest on bequests, badge days and RSL fundraisers.

Mark is keen to raise the profile of Legacy, so that they can better support the families of veterans.

BOOKMART UPDATE

There have been a few people who have brought in books from home to donate to our Bookmart. If you are on duty, please check the books first before accepting them. We don't want the extra work of culling 'rubbish'. The people that have come so far are quite happy with taking some of the books home to put in their own bins.

On Wednesday, Karen, Janet, Chris and Clive, Darlene, Rob Chambers and I met to work out marketing strategies. We are certainly trying different ways to 'get the word out there'. Karen is doing a very good job of chairing this meeting. We meet again next Wednesday at 10am at the Bookmart Hall. You are welcome to join us.

Rob has cemented the west side of the shed to prevent the dust from coming in.

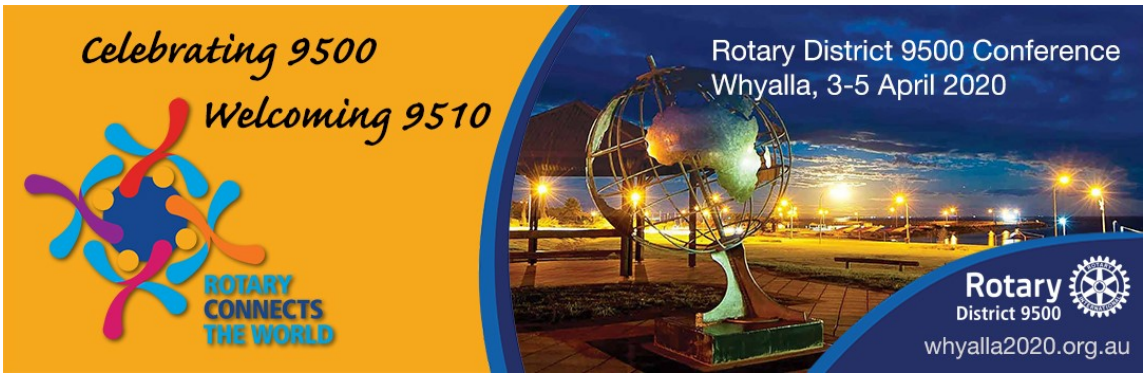

Thank you Rob.

Thank you everyone for your hard work

Jenny Harris

SOUTH AUSTRALIAN POLICE - NATIONAL POLICE CHECK UPDATE

New Procedure:-
Step 1: Download PD267 application form from the South Australian Police website or obtain one from a police station or me.
Step 2: Fill in your part of the form -
Volunteer
Kidman Park Rotary Club
Volunteers with children YES
Yes. I will have unsupervised contact with vulnerable groups
VOAN volunteer (VC)
Step 3: Take your form to a police station or Justice of the Peace to verify your identity using the 100 point ID check.
Step 4: Return the form to me. I will fill in the organisation section and send in.
Step 5: When you receive your certificate, photocopy and give it to me. Please retain the original copy for reference purposes.
Janet Johnson
CPO

P.S. It looks like we will need a 'Working with Children Check' (WWCC) from the Department of Human Services (DHS) as well.
I will investigate further!!!
It is compulsory if you are working with children or the aged to have a National Police Check.

ROTARY - PEOPLE OF ACTION AROUND THE WORLD

Canada

After years of providing financial support for the B.C. Wildlife Park, members of the Rotary Club of Kamloops West, British Columbia, staked out territory of their own in the 106-acre preserve. Enhancing a habitat that is home to cougars, lynx, bobcats, Rocky Mountain bighorn sheep, arctic wolves, and snakes, the club inaugurated a pollinator garden designed to attract hummingbirds, butterflies, bees, and desirable bugs.

During the District 5060 conference last May in Kamloops, 40 volunteers, including Rotarians, Rotaractors, and Rotary Youth Exchange participants from Districts 5040 and 5060, laid dirt and planted foxglove, tulips, lavender, woolly thyme, Russian sage, and coneflowers. "Many plants were chosen for their attraction for pollinators and drought tolerance," Sherry Chamberlain, the immediate past governor of District 5040 and a Kamloops West club member, says of the $2,300 project. The Rotary clubs of Kamloops and Kamloops Daybreak, also big supporters of the park, contributed funds and labor. "Afterward, our two districts met at the site for a social to mix and mingle." In October, club members returned to spread more dirt and gravel, and installed more plants, fencing, and a bench at a cost of about $3,800.
