RCKP'S PORT ADELAIDE HISTORICAL SOCIETY VOCATIONAL VISIT

Special thanks to the Port Adelaide Historical Society Team

PORT ADELAIDE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

We were generously hosted by PAHS last Tuesday at their museum at 95 Fletcher Rd, Peterhead in lieu of our usual dinner meeting.

We were warmly welcomed upon entering, and their willing band of helpers handled the cooking earlier in the afternoon so dinner could be timed appropriately.

CHILL

Rotary Kidman Park

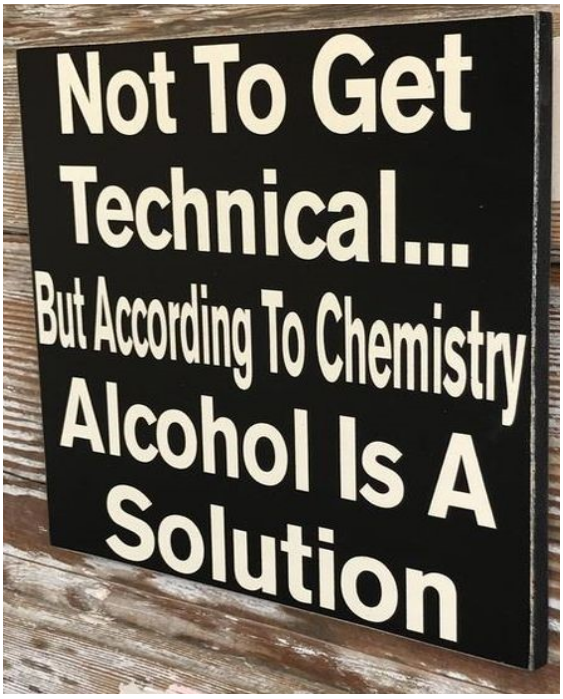

A bear walks into a pub, and takes a huge bite out of the bar.
'Get out!' shouts the barman. 'We don't serve drug-gies.'
'But I'm not a druggie,' replies the puzzled bear.
'Yeah? Then what about the bar bit you ate?'

You come from dust and you will return to dust. That's why I don't dust. It could be someone I know.

WORDS FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Our Vocational Visit and BBQ dinner and presentation hosted by David Hunter at Port Adelaide Historical Society was well attended including guests and partners. We also had a break from reports and updates, however this will return to normal when we return to our normal meeting this week.

What I found fascinating from the history was that the first sample of water taken from the Port River was in fact fresh water. You wonder how different history have been if a more accurate sample of 'saltwater' had been taken.

We have a full program for our 5 dinner meetings for March with such a great variety of guest speakers including a comedian for our Business Network dinner meeting on Tuesday, 17th March.

Don't miss this week's meeting with our guest speaker, Trevor McGuirk and Fay, talking on the RAWCS Solomon Islands project.

I look forward to catching up with you on Tuesday night.

PS Whilst I didn't have a thought for the week, I did consider this one appropriate.

Yours in Rotary

Kevin Tiggy

TIGGY'S THOUGHT

'We cannot completely appreciate where we live without an understanding of our history.'

Tiggy

 UPDATE ***

A brief update that Wayne Comley is now (Mon arvo) feeling much better and is having his best day today since the bypass surgery.

Wayne was released from Ashford last Thursday and has since been recovering at home.

Still not getting as much sleep as he would like, but all other aspects have improved.

MEETING NEWS - TUES, 3RD MARCH

President Helen Myhill gave us some background on the PAHS and the Museum, followed by longstanding member David Hunter and later Errol Chinner. Errol doubles as President of Largs Bay Rotary Club and David is also a member.

Our connections through David Hunter with PAHS and then Donations in Kind has had some outstanding outcomes for KPR with Bookmart shelving, assisting us with earlier opening of Bookmart by many months and saving us over $15000. Continued p4

The greeting, meal, speakers and tour of the museum is a winning template for many other similar size groups to visit. They provided our visitors an excellent and informative experience…. and a chance for PAHS to raise some needed funds.

The Museum opens each Sunday from 2pm to 4pm at a cover charge of $8 pp. The PAHS has many stories to tell and it really needs that amount of time. I plan to make an upcoming Sunday visit.

One of our KPR Members discovered reference in one of the journals that their great, great grandfather was one of the key Port Adelaide identities in the early years.

RCKP showed that we can travel well as we had 39 people along with a strong number of partners.

Thank you to you all.

Warren Hobbs

During his presentation, Errol Chinner spoke about the drinking fountain that was unveiled in 1877 as a mark of respect for long serving mayor, John Fornby, a teetotaller. When the drinking fountain was deemed to be beyond repair the original version found a home at the Port Adelaide Historical Society. It was recast and the new version can be found near the Port Adelaide Police Station. The fountain includes the Coat of Arms for Port Adelaide depicting an Aboriginal man and a sailor, and the motto Haud pluribus impa – Second to none.

SOUTH AUSTRALIAN POLICE - NATIONAL POLICE CHECK UPDATE

New Procedure:-
Step 1: Download PD267 application form from the South Australian Police website or obtain one from a police station or me.
Step 2: Fill in your part of the form -
Volunteer
Kidman Park Rotary Club
Volunteers with children YES
Yes. I will have unsupervised contact with vulnerable groups
VOAN volunteer (VC)
Step 3: Take your form to a police station or Justice of the Peace to verify your identity using the 100 point ID check.
Step 4: Return the form to me. I will fill in the organisation section and send in.
Step 5: When you receive your certificate, photocopy and give it to me. Please retain the original copy for reference purposes.
Janet Johnson
CPO

P.S. It looks like we will need a 'Working with Children Check' (WWCC) from the Department of Human Services (DHS) as well.
I will investigate further!!!
It is compulsory if you are working with children or the aged to have a National Police Check.

ROTARY - PEOPLE OF ACTION AROUND THE WORLD

Sri Lanka

To celebrate our canine companions, the Rotaract Club of Colombo Central held a dog walk and carnival that attracted 200 dogs and their owners in October. The festivities included a dog show and contests for best-dressed dog, best trick, and most popular pooch. Organizers circulated a petition to update Sri Lanka's outdated Cruelty to Animals Act. Along with signatures of participants, the paw prints of the dogs were taken to indicate their participation and support toward amendment of the laws, according to club member Pramodha Weerasekara. Proposed amendments include prison time for causing the intentional death of an animal.
