CLUB NEWS:

Rotary Kidman Park

WORDS FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Words escape me to the extent the impact the COVID-19 Pandemic is having on everyone worldwide.

Closer to home in our state of South Australia we have gone from 19 cases on Saturday ,14th March to 407 cases in only 21 days by Saturday, 4th April. Fortunately, to date there have been no deaths. In saying that, we are much luckier than many other areas around the world, in particular Italy, Spain, USA, France and UK suffering from 75% of the total deaths thus far. Is China's reporting accurate or are they saving face?

Enough on some facts and now focusing on our Kidman Park Rotary Club, we need to adjust and adapt to changes we will make to bounce forward into the future. Many duties and rosters are currently on hold and postponed until life as we knew it returns to some sort of normality. The only community service that will be relevant at this time will be Meals on Wheels. Please note volunteers need to be under the age of 70.

Rotarians willing to help or who are currently available to do more PLEASE notify Wayne Comley.

Rotarians please be patient with one another, particularly partners in perhaps testing times being together 24/7. I repeat my earlier words, let's take this opportunity to bounce forward. To that end we return Tuesday at 6.30 to our Meetings albeit with a difference. You don't need to leave home just click the link and join our 'Zoom meeting'. I will forward simple instructions in a separate email.

I look forward to seeing you on line on Tuesday, so join the meeting at say 6.25 ready for a 6.30 start 😊

Yours in Rotary

Kevin Tiggy
