WORDS FROM OUR PRESIDENT

As most of us have adjusted to Zoom, I structured our last meeting with an agenda to make things feel as "normal" as possible. Our first Zoom induction of new member Phil Ransome was followed by his "My Life, My Job". This will be one of those events in our history when we can reminisce and say "Do you remember?". Once normal meetings resume please give a Kidman Park welcome to Phil.

President Kevin Tiggemann welcoming Phil Ransome as the newest member of Kidman Park Rotary Club

Remember this week Mark Aiston is our guest speaker for the Intercity Meeting. His topic is "Twelve months of Sobriety". I am sure you will find his story authentic and very thought provoking.

The 5th of May will be our first Business Network Zoom meeting with guest speaker, Dennis Bunnik, Co-CEO of Bunnik Travel, talking on current challenges in the tourist industry. Remember to invite business colleagues or anyone that may like to join our meeting. Just send them an email and notify Warren Hobbs or me and we will email them the link on your behalf.

I look forward to seeing you on our Zoom meeting Tuesday, at 6.50ish ready for a 7.00 pm start. Don't be late and remember to adhere to the Zoom etiquette.

Yours in Rotary

Kevin Tiggy

MEALS ON WHEELS UPDATE

The Meals on Wheels (MoW) run has changed a little bit since Covid 19. Our previous run was in the Findon area with Dion and had about a dozen clients. Dion is now doing the run on his own and I am doing the Flinders Park route with Mike, who coordinates all the MoW shifts for the week.

Flinders Park is one of the larger routes with about 23 meals being delivered. Previously people could have a choice of meals, now it is down to one. Some areas, like Hindmarsh have moved to frozen meals as they do not have enough volunteers to cook. At this point the Findon MoW seems to have enough volunteers.

Mike was complaining that a 92yo was still turning up to help despite being told to stay home and keep safe. You can't keep a good woman down!

One of the other changes is with Covid 19 is that you are not supposed to bring meals inside the house. Some people (about 3) are super organised and have a table or chair set up outside, but most have enough trouble holding the door open.

Apart from that I am still adjusting to Mike's directions. Turn a lefty here he says as he points to the right. As I try to work out whether he means driveway, street and which direction. (He means street and to the left).

ZOOM MEETING - TUESDAY, 21ST APRIL

PHIL RANSOME

'MY LIFE, MY JOB'

During his presentation, Phil explained that he moved from his home in Port Lincoln to Adelaide to study electrical engineering. Since then he has furthered his education while transitioning to a dynamic career in management, business networking, and as a business adviser. Phil actively contributes to education through his not-for-profit organisations, Business in Schools and Speakers in Schools which provide opportunities to generate positive connections between students and members of the business and wider community.

Phil has two sons, and is an enthusiastic global traveller.

SMITH RESERVE - WOODVILLE WEST

GUESS HOW MANY BOOKS ARE AT OUR BOOKMART !!

First Prize - 10 free books or a bottle of PEPPERJACK.

Count the books on all shelves:

Main hall

Non-Fiction room

Staff room

Storage shed. (Does not include new deliveries still in boxes)

Refer to photos.

One row of books on a 900 shelf is usually 22 - 32 books

Children's books on a shelf can be up to 60 books.

The correct answer is more than 7,000 but less than 9,500.

The winner will be announced at the end of the Zoom meeting on Tuesday.

You can guess until 7:30pm in the Zoom meeting using "Chat" or email me before on cascade@bigpond.net.au
