WORDS FROM OUR PRESIDENT

The re-opening of our Bookmart was outstanding with record takings of $1,395.00!

Credit for the idea of a 2-week, $2 book sale goes to Rob Chambers. 30 people were waiting at the front door when the Bookmart opened on Saturday at 10.00am. The $50.00 advertisement on Facebook targeting 6,700 people and reached 400 recipients. Tony Pilkington (Pilko) also gave us a great plug on radio 5AA. The signs on 2 main roads, Trimmer Parade and Findon Road also attracted passing traffic. Jenny Harris, with the support of husband Ron was delighted with the result. With 8 more days of the sale, how many more records can we break? Hopefully this will create the need to restock the shelves from the thousands of donated books from the many boxes in storage.

The presentation by our guest speaker, David Evans, CEO of Spend-less Shoes has resulted in many positive feedback conversations from members. David certainly had at very difficult and un-enviable task when the COVID-19 forced the closure of all 216 stores. Read more on his topic further in this bulletin.

This Tuesday, May 26th at the usual time of 700pm, Maggie Yarak owner of Guarna Legal will be our guest speaker. Maggie will be bringing us up to date on Wills and Estates. Executors, Advance Care Directives, obtaining probate and handling disputes will be some of the topics covered and answered.

Don't miss Maggie on Tuesday

See you on the Zoom screen

Yours in Rotary

LAST WEEK'S GUEST SPEAKER

David Evans, CEO Spendless Shoes

David commenced as General Manager at Spendless Shoes in June 1991.
His responsibilities included procurement (direct sourcing), store property design and construction, distribution and logistics, retail operations, finance, HR, I.T. and sales and marketing.

The company has 216 footwear retail stores in major regional shopping centres in every mainland state/Territory of Australia (all stores company owned and operated). Spendless Shoes has 1,150+ team members with a proud continued record of success.

Spendless Shoes pride themselves on always delivering "the latest looks for less" and to never lose sight that "our people are our greatest asset". They continue to create a strong unique culture that differentiates them from other footwear stores and one that attracts superstars.

Since August of 2019 when David accepted the CEO position he has enjoyed further success. He was then faced with an unprecedented task in responding to COVID-19. All 216 stores were closed impacting the jobs of approximately 1,100 staff. This was certainly an emotional experience. Thankfully, with the companies cash reserves and the assistance of Job-keeper from the Australian Government, Spendless Shoes has managed to avoid becoming a COVID -19 business casualty.

With the easing of retail restrictions, currently 60+ stores have reopened with many to follow over the following weeks. Hopefully, all stores will reopen in the months ahead. Like many business managers, David needed to adjust and adapt to new ways of doing business and to expand the company's online sales.

It was great that David gave his time on Tuesday night where he shared his journey including his heart-felt challenges and his successful endeavours to secure the future of Spendless Shoes.

Tiggy
