WORDS FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Last Week

Tuesday's Zoom meeting had extra members linking in to hear from our guest speaker Maggie Yarak, the owner of Guarna Legal. Her PowerPoint presentation on Wills and Estates, executors, Advance Care Directives, obtaining probate and handling disputes proved to be highly informative. This was highlighted by the number of questions and furthermore, I have had great feedback.

This Week

We have about 17 of our members that are relatively new to our club over the last 3 years including 8 new members in the last 12 months. This group tend to be lower in age than most of our long-standing members. It also gives us an opportunity this Tuesday night to hear from our newer members and do some brainstorming. I am suggesting this to be the start of a future Strategic Plan for our club. What will our club look like in 3 years, 5 years 7 and 10 years?

Next Week

Don't miss the opportunity to invite family, friends and business acquaintances to our zoom meeting on June 9th to hear from our Guest Speaker Lynne Davis on the RM Williams story.

Looking forward to seeing you on the Zoom screen

Yours in Rotary

Kevin Tiggy

SERVICE ABOVE SELF

TIGGY'S THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

'Before you can take care of anyone else, you first need to ensure your looking after yourself. Then you will be better equipped and able to help those in need.'

LAST WEEK'S GUEST SPEAKER — MAGGIE YARAK, OWNER OF GUARNA LEGAL

Wills & Estates, Executors, Advanced Care Directives, Obtaining Probate and family law dispute resolutions.

Maggie is a commercial lawyer with over 16 years experience in the private and commercial sectors. From 2017 she has enjoyed owning and running Guarna Legal. For the last 14 years Maggie has also held the role of lecturer and facilitator in the Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice at The University of Adelaide. She is a member of the Law Society of South Australia and the Women Lawyers' Association of South Australia. Maggie is also passionate about promoting awareness of autism, and supporting the needs of those affected by autism.

During her presentation, Maggie explained the many advantages of having an up to date and valid will, an enduring power of attorney and an Advance Care Directive in place. Together, they optimise opportunities for person's wishes to be fulfilled. A will can, for example, instruct the distribution of assets, establish Trusts to provide for children and those who are vulnerable, and outline preferred funeral arrangements. Furthermore, the person can choose an executor who they trust to finalise the estate in accordance with the instructions in the will. An enduring power of attorney authorises someone to act on the donor's behalf with regard to financial affairs and practical matters. An Advance Care Directive focuses on a person's future health care and other personal matters. The substitute decision maker can only act on the donor's behalf if the donor becomes unable to make legally sound decisions. Having these documents in place can help to reduce the burden on family members and loved ones, minimise the possibility of disputes, help to ensure that issues are resolved in a timely manner and significantly reduce costs.

During her presentation, Maggie also outlined probate and the rules pertaining to family law disputes. She recommended that wills be regularly updated, especially when circumstances change.

Maggie's presentation was much appreciated by the members of RCKP and we thank her for sharing her insights.

GUEST SPEAKER- TUESDAY, June 9th 6.50 for 7.00pm start

Lynne Davis, WHS/HR Manager of RM Williams

R.M. Williams OUTBACK OUTFITTER

TOPIC: The RM Williams Story

The RM Williams story is synonymous with the life of its Founder, Reginald Murray Williams (known simply as R.M.)

R.M. was born in outback South Australia in 1908.

The origins of the RMW business was a business idea of R.M. to Sidney Kidman, a wealthy cattle rancher and pastoralist based in Adelaide. Kidman was impressed with RM Williams leather goods which led to the commencement of RM Williams as a manufacturing company, a great South Australian business success story.

You will be fascinated as Lynne Davis joins the dots for us of this wonderful South Aussie business icon.

Don't hesitate and book early to avoid disappointment.
