BOOKMART NEWS

Request for Volunteers (Extract from Jenny's latest email to club members)

'While sorting out the roster, we have some people that are not well enough to continue their duties.

This is understandable because of our age. We all will need someone to help us in our time of need.

Please consider going on the Bookmart roster if you are not already doing so. This is our only way for raising money at present.

If you can't, please consider going on as a reserve list in case we need a replacement.

At present, if we need a quick fix, we will all try to swap with someone who is rostered on the same day of the week .

At present, Ron and I are filling gaps when we see them but we can't continue to do this all the time.

Thank you for all your hard work,

Jenny Harris'

WORDS FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Last Week 2nd June

Well done to all members of our club who contributed to the achievement of two district awards.

The Club Performance award was for participating in an outstanding number of activities.

The Community Services Award was for our "Standout" Epilepsy Project.

The purpose of last week's Zoom meeting was to engage members with some thoughts for our upcoming year. Many members raised a number of suggestions and yes, the PA system has not been ignored. It was good to have other comments for us as a club to consider moving forward and importantly for our President Elect, Chris Branson.

Thank you to members who have already returned the feedback form. Can I encourage all members to return the form particularly indicating your preference in order for Chris to allocate you to a committee for the upcoming 20/21 Rotary year

Community service Award

This Week 9th June

We will be having a business network Zoom meeting which gives us the opportunity to invite family, friends and business acquaintances. Our guest presenter, Lynne Davis, will be speaking to us on the SA Business success story of RM Williams. Don't miss this one!

Next Week 16th June

TBA

Looking forward to seeing you on the Zoom screen

Yours in Rotary

'BACKPACKS FOR KIDS' NEWS

The Rotary Club of Kidman Park takes great pleasure in congratulating Rachael Zaltron who has received an OAM (MEDAL OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA) in the South Australian Queen's Birthday honours list for 2020. As supporters of 'Backpacks for Kids' since its inception, we have appreciated Rachael's tireless efforts to improve outcomes for those who experience hardship in our community.

Frank Bunnik

Rachael was among the honours recipients featured in the Adelaide Advertiser

'From little thing, big thing grew

RACHAEL ZALTRON OAM

IT started as two families intending to help 10 foster children get themselves on their feet.

Now Rachael Zaltron's charity – Backpacks 4 SA Kids – helps 11,000 children a year go to school, escape family violence or enjoy a Christmas so many take for granted.

Mrs Zaltron, 46, of Ridgehaven, has been recognised in the Queen's Birthday Honours for her services to children and young people. The organisation helped 564 children in its first year and that number has continued to grow.

It means there is no shortage of children who tragically need help – but Mrs Zaltron rises to the challenge for the "pure joy" brought by improving their lives.

"It takes a moment to stop, which we don't really do well," Mrs Zaltron, pictured, said.

"We've supported nearly 40,000 kids.

"It's a surreal thought to think there have been that many kids in SA but we've also had the pure joy of seeing the kids' faces and knowing there are families that haven't gone back to domestic violence because of what we've done, or teen kids who didn't think anyone cared about them."

The long hours have sometimes come at the cost of her own health, but she has no plans to slow down.

"There are some hard days, but some are really full of life."

'GUESS WHO'S COMING TO DINNER'

At a recent meeting of the Board, it was recommended that the Fellowship Committee organise a Guess Who's Coming to Dinner function to enable members to get together to enjoy fellowship once again.

To that end the Fellowship Committee had a Zoom Meeting to discuss the idea, consider a suitable date and establish whether enough hosts could be found. The meeting suggested Saturday, 4th July subject to membership support and sufficient volunteer hosts. We are fortunate in having a number of volunteer hosts at this stage, but more may be needed. The number of people who will be able to attend will depend on the number who volunteer to host this event.
