WORDS FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Last Week 9th June

We started last week's meeting with Wayne Comley giving us an update on his health including his latest visit to hospital. He has certainly had a fair share of challenges with 5 visits to hospital and hopefully only one to go. Now all this is almost over it is onwards and upwards for Wayne.

Jenny Harris announced a working bee at the Bookmart for this Wednesday, the 17th at 10.00am to sort through and replace the shelves with donated books. The more volunteers the better, so if you are available I encourage you to give a hand at Smith Reserve on Wednesday.

Guest Speaker, Lynne Davis, was proud and passionate about RM Williams, a SA Business success Story. After an initial technical audio challenge at the beginning, Grant Price suggested Lynne check her settings which fixed the issue. She was then able to give a great comprehensive presentation of the RM Williams Story. I have covered more details of Lynne's presentation further in the Krier.

Our members and guests are looking forward to returning to traditional face to face meetings. We had 2 additional guests thanks to Warren Hobbs.

This Week 16th June

With the pending easing of COVID19 restrictions, we will use the Zoom meeting as an opportunity to plan for the future. We will discuss the possible return to meetings tentatively scheduled for some time in July. This may start with a hybrid meeting with some members joining on Zoom. We will also discuss our upcoming changeover now locked in for Saturday 25th of July at Glenelg Golf Club, 6.30 for 7.00pm

Mario McDonagh, a member since early June of 2019 has offered at the last minute to be our Speaker on Tuesday. He will be talking to us on the many issues facing businesses with workers affected by Drugs and Alcohol in the workplace.

Members can I urge you to return the 'Feedback' form to Chris Branson, mainly to help him allocate you to one of the Committees, hopefully of your choice.

Next Week 23rd June

Our Guest Speaker (to be confirmed) will be about Cyber Security, for example, who is or maybe hacking into your computer. I will have details at Tuesday's meeting and hopefully have this locked in.

See you on the Zoom screen

Yours in Rotary
Kevin Tiggy

LAST WEEK'S GUEST SPEAKER LYNNE DAVIS

Lynne Davis is the WHS and HR Manager and commenced at R.M. Williams 11 years ago. Lynne gave us a comprehensive presentation of which included a number of videos and power points. I will briefly summarise the R.M. Story as well as cover the main points from Lynne's presentation.

R.M. Williams AO, CMG, was born at Belalie North near Jamestown in South Australia on the 24th May 1908 and died on the 4th November 2003 aged 95. He had a State Funeral at Toowoomba in Queensland. The company R.M. Williams is a global brand with stores on Australia, London and New York.

R.M. left school at the age of 13, packed his swag and headed for the outback. He loved the bush and the life-style. During this time, he spent 3 years as a camel driver trekking through the Australian desert. He learned his leather-working skills from a horseman called Dollar Mick and made bridles, pack saddles and riding boots. In 1932 he began selling saddles to Sir Sidney Kidman, a wealthy pastoralist. This was the catalyst that enabled R.M. to establish a small factory in his father's back shed in Adelaide. In 1934 he opened his first store at 5 Percy Street Prospect; today it doubles both as a retail outlet and the R.M. Williams Museum.

The R.M. Williams Boot is unique and made from one piece of leather joined at the back. In the first video we saw R.M. on horseback proudly saying that we have created a worldwide appeal and a symbol of Australia. The world is our limit now. Other comments were 'We made them first, we made them to last.' and 'If you make something good, people will make a track to your door.' The second video featured Hugh Jackman who is R.M. Williams Ambassador in the USA and his very powerful quote 'It's not the number of steps that matter, it's where they take you.' I found the video of the Spring Street Store in New York impressive, displaying not only boots, but also a great array of apparel.

The 'BRAND VALUES' slide was headed with 'WHAT WE ARE' and included the following 8 inspiring sub-headings - Grounded, Entrepreneurial, Resourceful, Honest, Loyal, Enduring, Courageous, Warm/Friendly.

R.M. sold his business in 1988. In 1989 the first store in London was opened. In 2014 a controlling stake in the business was acquired by L Capital with the remaining share still Australian-owned. In 2016 L Capital merged with Catterton to form L Catterton. A significant proportion of R.M. Williams is still Australian, with many of their iconic products still produced in Adelaide as they have been since 1934. The R.M. Williams Factory at Salisbury South make 1500 boots per day, Monday to Thursday with a half day on a Friday. This equates to well over 320,000 boots per year.

I trust those who Zoomed in last week found the R.M. Williams story enlightening. Whilst some members missed the presentation, I hope you have found this summary an interesting read.
