From Our President

Hi All

It was really great to hear from Gerald Matthews this week, little did we know we would go on such a philosophical journey, but it was certainly interesting, and I am sure everyone would have got something from it. Well done to Jenny Filsell for organising Gerald to speak with us. Jenny literally heard Gerald on the radio and thought he was fascinating, so made contact with him! Well done!

We are still on the search for an incoming president, a sub-committee has been formed consisting of Warren, Tom and Wayne and they have directly approached many members, but so far no takers. In considering the challenges of finding someone and the time left in this year, the sub committee thought through how the role of president might be made easier, in the hopes that this would enable someone to step forward to undertake the role.

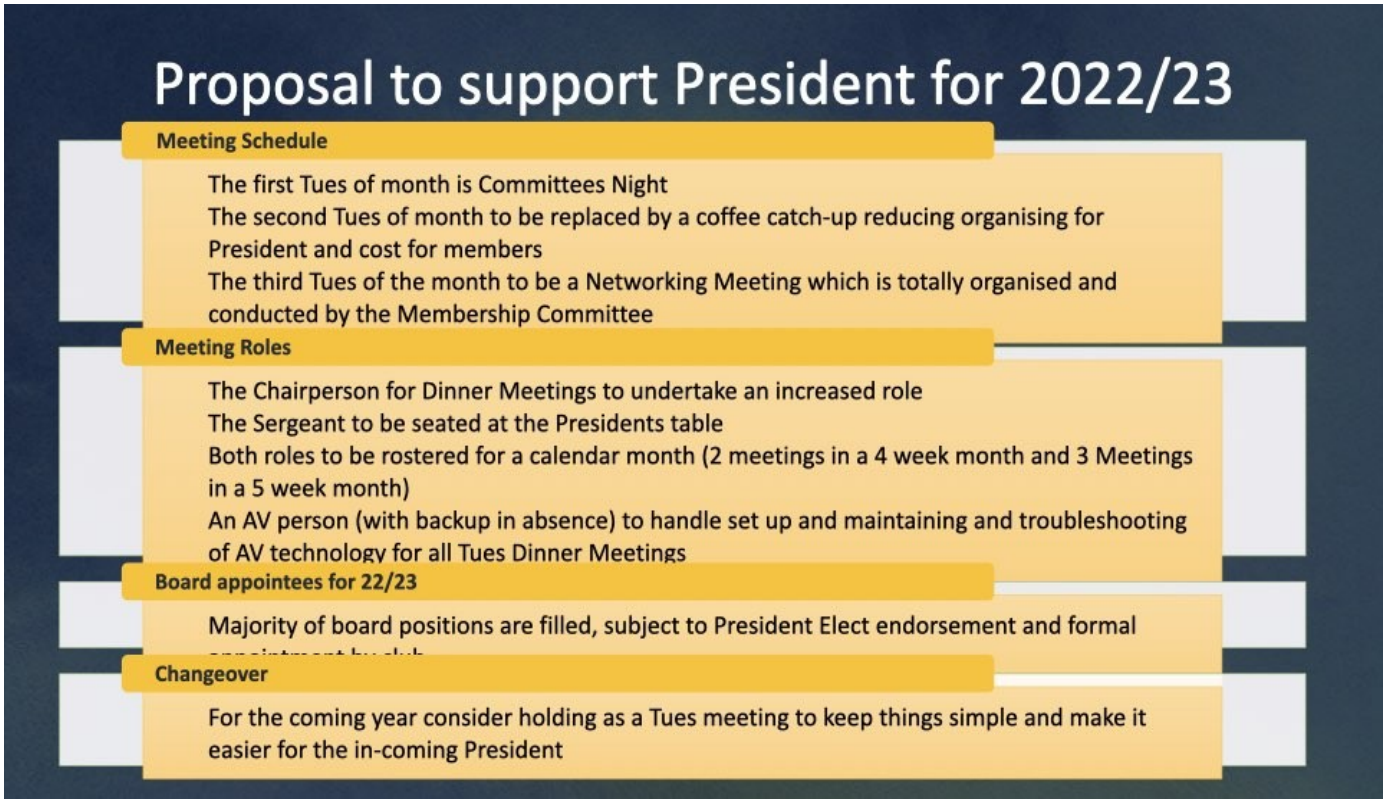

Warren presented these ideas at the meeting which have been included in this Bulletin. These ideas align beautifully with the ideas raised in the brainstorming session and I believe would make the role easier.

This is important as a lot of our members have pretty busy lives. We really need to lock in a president, the club can't run without one. So please consider taking on this role, and have a look at the suggestions that we could put in place to make it easier.

Please contact Warren by Sunday night to let him know you are interested in taking on the role. If you also have ideas about how to make it easier, let Warren know as well. We are considering all options/opportunities at this stage, a job share arrangement may also be a way to go.

I am looking forward to the Partners Evening next Tuesday with Sarah McGrath speaking about Aid to Ukraine. It is is going to be a big night with more than 50 people coming so far. If you weren't at the meeting on Tuesday night to fill in the round robin, can you please let me know if you are, or are not attending. Also, you don't have to bring a partner, you can bring a friend, a colleague or another family member.

See you next week
Regards,
Ali Harris

A REMINDER: When you are the person responsible for introducing the Guest Speaker, please contact them well before the meeting to "touch base". Remind them of the date, starting time and venue of our meeting. Ask them for a bio and photo to appear in the Kidman Krier. In addition should they require a computer (or bring their own), cables, a roving or lapel microphone, etc., for their presentation, make sure that you determine their exact requirements and advise the member scheduled for Furniture. On the night, welcome them at the door upon their arrival, buy them a drink and introduce them to the president and other members at the pre-dinner gathering. During their presentation, take notes that capture the essence of their talk and send that to the Editor for that week's edition of the Kidman Krier.
