From Our Co-Presidents

DIK Working Bee Saturday 12 November 9:30am to noon – Free BBQ at noon.
We have benefitted greatly from DIK. All the medical equipment that went to Tanna as well as our Bookmart shelving all came from DIK. We owe them so if you can help we will arrange car pooling when meet next on Nov 8. We have helped them before and we should help them again. I think most of the work involves moving things around and tidy up. It's at Edinburgh near the Airforce base so a carpool is a good idea.
Co President
Rob

Meals
After numerous communications over the leadup week, the conclusion was that we have then agreed to OUR list of 17 Pub Fare meals that will be used as the two options each week with the two choices being appropriately matched.
The Alternate Drop last week was a surprise....and hopefully that will be the last meal surprise that we have. Having said that, after a briefing to the meeting and a few swapped meals knowing what the choices were, there seemed a comfort with the format.

Steve Freeling (Manager of Westward Ho) rang for feedback on Thurs 27/11 about last Tuesday
Our clear agreement going forward from here is
* The two (and only two) meal choices will always come from KPR agreed list of meals (it is an excellent list prepared by our Chris Branson)
* the two choices each week will be complimentary to each other
* serving team will endeavour to serve both meal choices to complete each table (especially when Alternate Drop)
* The Chef is aware of the key Dietary issues that apply with our Members
* It is our KPR expectation that all meals each week will be up to an acceptable Pub Fare standard
* Alternate Drop may apply from 8/11. That method allows the chef to prepare and schedule better for a better serving timing result for our Meeting....plus less wastage for them.
Same delivery time per table necessary.
* NO SURPRISES

Our D9510 Group 7 Report to Area Governor
We have prepared a Report to our Area Governor Rosie Erasmus outlining what our club has done over the past 3 months and our planned activities for the next 3 months.
One activity we have suggested is a combined meeting at KPR at our Venue for Tues 28th Feb. This may involve attendances by several clubs. Our likely Speaker will have universal appeal.
AG Rosie is keen to promote this path with the other Group 7 Clubs. Watch this space.

How Is Norm Lewis Travelling(from his daughter Jo)
Norm has just shifted into Glenrose Court-Life Care at Glen Osmond.. It is their goal to have their residents return to home within 12 weeks with supported care.
The challenge for Norm with that is his blindness.
Norm is apparently enjoying his residency there.
A more recent Text from Jo..... "Norm is not quite up to Visitors yet - he likes the idea but they are still establishing the routine of physio etc so we think another week. I'll keep you posted.
Cheers Jo."

SPECIAL KPR OCCASION....MORNING TEA FOR VOLUNTEERS AT BOOKMART 26th Oct

The Morning Tea for the Bookmart Volunteers held on 26 Oct at 10am at Bookmart was a great re-visit of some Bookmart history and then its current status. Wow!!....what a great inside look at Bookmart and to hear from those Volunteers that make it work as well as it does.

It has been quite a ride from the early years of Bookmart....
* initial concept of Bookmart being supported and made possible by the good grace of City of Charles Sturt (CCS) and our Councillor and KPR Member Stuart Ghent
* CCS allocating the South West corner of West Lakes Library to our KPR Bookmart which we operated by an Honesty Box
* We used a Shipping Container for storage of our spare book stock...pretty hot in summer and cold in winter as the work area for our Volunteers. Security was an ongoing problem for the Container.
* the great leadership of Margaret Sargent over many years and then Jenny Harris and some of the Volunteers from then are still involved.
* the profit from those 15 years at that site around $12,000 pa....which was a huge support to our KPR projects (many within the borders of CCS, and other KPR local and overseas projects)

Then we fast forward to KPR Library Bookmart not being possible in the planned new CCS Library construction on the Footy Park site. Numerous meetings with CCS to discuss options being led by the Vision of Jenny Harris. Jenny had this Vision for the next step of KPR Bookmart to be a home for KPR. CCS per Jacqui came up with some interesting possibilities....plus looking outside at what other Lions Clubs and Rotary Clubs had set up and the relative success of those. Jenny was persistent and relentless in following up the best option for KPR and Bookmart. CCS came up with some good possibilities...former Scout Halls at Cooke Reserve, Royal Park and also one at Smith Reserve, Woodville West. The Scout Hall at Woodville West had some possibilities and discussions progressed....Jenny with Jacqui at CCS, then approval for a Lease from a Meeting of the Council.

The rest is history .....this slowly became Jenny Harris' vision fulfilled ....a large, workable Bookmart (perhaps 10 times the size of our Library site plus the shed) and a home for KPR for various purposes.

Many steps in between for all that to happen....consent by the CCS Council Meeting, Lease with the CCS, sublease with Girl Guides who were tenants for the past 20 years at the site and absolutely love the KPR link and arrangements, CCS major maintenance on the site, major book shelving obtained from Rotary Donations in Kind, building signage and portable signage to nearby streets, an in depth professional marketing plan, install Alarm system, zoomed photos of KPR at work and play, then later free mobile shelving from CCS closure of the Library, paths laid by CCS maintenance, card machine for credit card sales. It is a never-ending journey....

The sharing with the Guides has worked well with mobile shelving on wheels that is an easy conversion of the hall for Guides use. Plus the availability within the Lease of the large shed for book stocks and book drop offs by libraries.....and storage of the KPR BBQ trailer and equipment and Fridge all catered for .....and the Junction Centre playground equipment stored. Rob Chambers' building and planning expertise and coordination with shelving, maintenance and shed restructuring and shed shelving all invaluable.

Plus numerous other KPR members who have helped with the Bookmart journey.

CLUB NEWS:

MORNING TEA FOR VOLUNTEERS AT BOOKMART Continued

This is a step back in time ....our Woodville West Bookmart opened in Sept 2019 and our Library Bookmart continued past that date by almost 2 years.

The planning and preparation for our present bookmart prior to 2019 had a gestation period of several years.

It is interesting to reflect on the relative importance of our KPR Bookmart to our Rotary Club fund-raising, activity level and as our home.

Our Bookmart now generates $24,000 pa all of which goes into projects of the Club and much of it into our local community.

Some examples of that are our involvement in Pink & Blue Swim (for Breast and Prostate Cancer support), Operation Flinders supporting disadvantaged Youth, medical equipment to Vanuatu, Foodbank, Junction Centre, Epilepsy SA, Down Syndrome SA, and many others.

Anyway.....back to the Morning Tea yesterday....15 volunteers in attendance and 11 member / volunteers also along.

A great spread of scones and pies, pasties and cakes.....and great people!!

Jenny asked everyone to intro themselves. Key take-away was the passion and satisfaction of the volunteers about books, bookmart, their role in Bookmart and the connection and cooperation between all at Bookmart. Jenny is currently doing a contact list of all Bookmarters and Volunteers to enable easy contact for general communication and swapping of shifts. Bearing in mind the different shifts of people rarely see the others from other shifts.

The current Bookmart Committee was introduced....a progessive and impressive committee making things happen.
We are acutely aware of the importance of our Volunteers and are extremely grateful for all their input and achievements.

And Jenny Harris (ably supported by Partner Ron)....you can look back with pride at Bookmart that was a dream that you had a major role in turning it into a reality..

Co-President
Warren

PS Some feedback received by Jenny since the Morning Tea from one of the new Volunteers
"Hi Jenny
Thanks for the wonderful Morning Tea yesterday.
I enjoyed meeting so many interesting and caring people.
Kind Regards"
