From Our Co-Presidents

What a great Topic and Speaker last Tuesday. The history of the splendid Clipper Ship "City of Adelaide" built in 1864 was very compelling. Talk about passion from Speaker Peter Christopher and the many City of Adelaide volunteers. It was good ground work of our Peter and Dale Kentish that sourced the Speaker that made it all happen. The Clipper is planned to be the centrepiece at Dock 2, Port Adelaide. There has been some talk about a visit and meal on deck of the Clipper later this Rotary year. Watch this space.

Other observations on last Tues.... it was great to have a continuing strong attendance of 35 which was after the very successful Christmas Dinner held two days earlier at Cruising Yacht Club with around 60 attendees with many Partners in that number. Well done Fellowship Committee. Another great KPR Event which continues a series of many other successful events in our year to date.

At our Tuesday night Meeting all attendees were given 2 of the impressive KPR Bookmart Bookmarks. Please pass one to a friend who is a keen reader as they need to know more about our KPR Bookmart. Well done to our Bookmart Committee with great initiatives with progressing the Bookmarks, Bookmart shirts and Bookmart Name Badges.

On Tues night, we circulated for your written greeting two giant birthday cards celebrating our Norm Lewis' 106th birthday. Unfortunately Norm has covid and although he is asymptomatic and is in good health, his get together for this Friday organised by daughter Joan has been cancelled. He won't be available for visits until the new year.

Ann Branson gave the Meeting an update on Chris Branson's exploits so far in Karratha working for ACCOR. Ann put out an SOS for an occasional Doggie minder. Paddy the miniature Daschund is the mindee. Please give Ann a call if you may be able to assist.

We again welcomed Barbara Wheatcroft (a former District Governor) to another of our meetings. Interesting observation from Barbara after reading our KK Newsletter was that it is not many clubs that have their Speaker/Meeting program set out to April. That has been our Club Committees at work.

A reminder was put out for KPR Members to have a browse of your very impressive KPR website. You all have an email with the Website Link and username and password. Prepare to be impressed.
That is your Club presented at its best, compliments of your Website Committee led by Rob Stocker.

A big surprise in the Joker Draw last Tuesday. They could have knocked us all down with a feather when Co-Pres Warren drew out the Joker after only 5 weeks draws. To enable him to get out alive, he quickly promised to re-commit the $300 of Jenny Harris' win back into the kitty, so we start 2023 with a purse of $300 and the first weeks one third of sales for kitty and the one third for the Members individual payout.

Remember NO MEETING on Tues 20th December....we next gather in the New Year on Tues 10th January at Westward Ho and then the following Tues 17th Jan at the Presidents BBQ.

Best wishes from your Co-Pres'es for a safe and happy Xmas to you and your families
Warren and Rob

PS We both thank you all for your input to KPR over the past 6 months to rebound after a difficult Covid impacted period. This has involved input from you all in varying ways.....from the Directors on the Board, our weekly MC's, members of all the Club Committees, our Bookmart helper members and volunteers, all other roles including Bulletin Editor, Public Officer, Auditor etc and other club officers, ongoing sourcers of great speakers, our Membership Committee group organising of compelling monthly Business Networking Meetings, helpers with Projects to date, Meals on Wheels helpers, support to getting weekly rosters jobs done, and to you all for attending in force at our weekly meetings which has been critically important to our past 6 months with the Venue.....and for your collective patience while a few issues were sorted. All this has culminated in the super outcome at our recent AGM when all positions were filled. Each and everyone one of you has had a significant role in getting KPR to its current stable position where we can once again be confident of the exciting future of a KPR that we are all very proud of. This reminds us of the adage....that it takes the Village to raise a child....we have all been Villagers on this journey.

Christmas Function at CYCSA 11th December 2022

Last Sunday we had Lunch at the CYCSA to celebrate Christmas 2022. A beautiful view of the Marina and perfect weather assisted in the total enjoyment of the event with 58 in attendance.

Rob and Joy Stocker and Frank Bunnik were standout for greatly enhancing the Christmas spirit in the room with their Christmas attire.

Thanks to Ron Harris ,Grant Price and Peter Brown for their kind donation of wines for the tables and wine prizes in the raffle.

A lovely meal was supplied by the CYCSA and well supervised by Orlando the function coordinator who was very attentive to small details. Thanks to Rob Hughes our patron also. We enjoyed the afternoon with great camaraderie as can be seen in our photo selections of the event.

YOUR INVITATION TO PASS ON YOUR BIRTHDAY WISHES TO OUR NORM

Norm has recently been away from his home receiving some rehab care and his health has improved significantly. Norm is well and alert. However due to failing eyesight and poor hearing, Norm has decided that he will not move back into his home at Glenelg North, but will move into a facility likely in the West Beach area when availability arises.

Stop Press: Cancelled

As most of us are aware, our Norm Lewis is 106 years old on this Christmas Eve.
Norm's daughter Joan, and Norm have extended an Invitation to come over to Norm's home to wish Norm a Happy Birthday on Friday 23rd December (which is the day before his Birthday) any time between 2pm and 6pm. It will be a simple occasion with Tea and Coffee and biscuits being on offer and a chance to wish Norm a Happy Birthday and wish him well at his home for the last time. If you wish to bring a bottle to have a celebration on the day then that is fine. There will be some glasses on tables at Norms.

This may be the only time ever that you ever get invited to a 106th Birthday celebration. Norm will love you to come along, even if you drop-in for 30 min anytime between 2 and 6. There are no speeches.... just a birthday wish.

Norm's address is 12 McLachlan Avenue, Glenelg North.

Unfortunately Norm has covid and although he is asymptomatic and is in good health, his get together organised by his daughter Joan has been cancelled. He won't be available for visits until the new year.

Seeds for Snapper

Our Community Services Committee have had discussions with Jen Clarke about how KPR could support this excellent environmental project.
Rachel Williams of Ozfish was our Guest Speaker on 30th August advising how this project works and what it achieves for our fish stocks.
Collection and delivery of the Seeds relies on same day collection of the seeds when they are washed up on the metro beaches and then delivering them by the following day to holding tanks at Cruising Yacht Club. For this to happen, the timely communication is generally to individuals by Face Book or text.

Jen Clarke is happy to lead this path so for individual members and / or partners who are interested in assisting with restoring Snapper stocks at our Metro Adelaide beaches then please ring, text or email Jen Clarke on 0423 007354 or jd.clarke@westnet.com.au. In this way she can gather a KPR group and handle the necessary prompt communications when the seeds wash up. This is very different from most of our KPR projects which involve a rostered group at a future date. If you are interested in this support to our local beachside environment then please communicate with Jen ASAP to advise of your interest. (Thanks Jen!!)

Director- Community Services

Our Foodbank Food Donations

Our final delivery on Wednesday 14th Dec for our Xmas Food donations to the Foodbank Hub at Woodville.
You will recall our Donations Box that has been at Westward Ho over the past 4 weeks. We shared this project with our Venue of Westward Ho (per Steve Freeling) and the food Donations overflowed the boxes provided. The Foodbank Woodville team were overjoyed to receive this being the last of our Xmas deliveries.
Thankyou to all of our KPR members and the Westward Ho members for making this an effective food contribution to Foodbank
This project was the brainchild of our Chris and Ann Branson and has been a resounding success....thanks Chris and Ann.
The coming Xmas is still a Covid impacted Xmas and the donations are badly needed. A few photos below of our final Xmas Food Donation at the Foodbank Hub at Woodville
