CLUB NEWS:

The Co-Presidents Round up for this week

The Co-Pres BBQ was held last Tues and was a signature occasion for KPR.
Rob and Sue Chambers kindly hosted the special occasion at their newly completed home at Cottesloe St, West Beach. Members must have been excited in the leadup as most had arrived by 5.50pm for the nominated 6pm start. Excellent numbers of 54 were booked in.....not all homes can seat 54 people for a sit-down meal. (Rob was prepared to cater for 80 if necessary). Texas Bull provided the meal with no fuss and the quality was excellent.
Rob had all angles covered in case of extreme heat but the hot weather had dialled itself down by our arrival time.

It was a great opportunity for all of us to mix and move around. After main course, Rob led off with special Paul Harris dual sapphire presentation to two of our most decorated members in Ed King (our only past District Gov) and David Simpson (our Charter President and more currently Probus key Directorship roles).....and both are ongoing continuing their great work for KPR and District Rotary. Both responded and were delighted to be recognized by their KPR peers.

Warren continued the presentation mode with PHF sapphire recognition of Rob Stocker. In Rob's 4 year membership of KPR he has taken on the tough roles of Chair of Website Committee, Kidman Krier Editor for 2 years and Bookmart input by he and Joy. Rob was a past President of Albury North his previous Rotary Club and Rob talks of similarities between our clubs. Albury North has a membership of 74. Rob also responded and always referencing the help of others in achieving these awards.

Warren continued the theme of energy and input to KPR which has been actioned by all of our members over the difficult Covid past years (which was difficult for all Clubs and businesses alike). He referred to over the past 6 months that our KPR members have assisted by maximizing our attendance on Tuesday nights which was required for Venue and meals aspects. With that now consolidated, our membership has still needed to be patient and supportive through this period of alternate Venues and varying quality of meals. He said an indicator of KPR returning to its core strength was the AGM outcome of all positions of the Club filled for 23/24. Also reference to the Master of Ceremonies (MC) role working well with on going volunteers covering that weekly role. Warren thanked all our members for stepping up to help KPR to move forward and to ensure sustainability into the future of the Club that is very precious to all of us..

Sue and Rob Chambers were presented with a bouquet of flowers for their hosting of this special event. Robert Ryan interjected to point out that this same date of 17th Jan was in fact Sue and Rob's Wedding Anniversary and Rob advised that in fact the flowers have saved him buying an Anniversary present for Sue irrespective of the name on the card. This was just another reminder that Rob is still the incurable romantic as he is taking Sue out to celebrate their Anniversary this Thursday night to Windy Point Lookout(?) and then to the Windy Point Restaurant....plus he now has the floral gift covered.....an inspiration to us all !!

Rob thanked all those that had helped collect tables and chairs from Bookmart and then the returning of them....there was no shortage of volunteers. As the stragglers found the exit around 9.30pm (a late night for our crew) everyone reflected on another great occasion for all at KPR.

CLUB NEWS:

The Co-Presidents Round up for this week Continued

A few other things on our KPR radar for the past week and coming week:

* the success of our Airport Bunnings BBQ ....well done to our volunteers under oppressive conditions.
It is clear we can make this site work given the new found post-covid customer numbers and Bunnings national pricing increases. (see the separate BBQ article on Page 7)
Thanks to all our volunteers on the day and in the lead up

* Save the date for the WBSC PINK and BLUE Day on Sat 11th Feb from 9am to 1pm. How would you like to participate??.....the KPR options are outlined in last weeks KK (see an update page 6)

* Special week next Tues night 24th Jan to hear about the My Life, My Job for two of our newer members of Brian Tucker and Lauren Paradise. Always interesting to hear more about our own.

See you Tuesday
Co-Presidents
Warren and Rob

Pink and Blue Swim, Walk and Run.... Update

A special occasion on Friday attending the LAUNCH of PINK & BLUE. Jenny and Ron Harris and Helen and Warren Hobbs attended the Sponsors LAUNCH of Pink and Blue held at Beachside Cafe.

A very impressive array of inspirational Speakers from WBSC, St Andrews Hospital and the Prostate Foundation. Plus a Prostate survivor who is a 74 yo West Beach local who was the beneficiary of a Prostate trial program that saved his life after some different pathways. It was so refreshing to hear the impact in non-medical language from a patient.

The CEO of major Sponsor of GPA Engineers spoke of losing two key Directors through cancer and hence their ongoing motivation for GPA annual support of $50,000. The total dollar goal this year is $105,000 which will be spent to arrange a Breast Cancer support angel to assist with those on a concentrated treatment of radiation treatment and followed by an operation plus to Prostate research.

It is impressive that WBSC are so focussed about the success of this program with all proceeds going to research and treatment. WBSC have numerous members that have suffered from Prostate Cancer and others from Breast Cancer. It is a myth that men just die with Prostate Cancer not from it.....in fact more men die from Prostate issues than any other cancer....plus this extends into deaths from suicide.

A great night ....for information....for connection....for inspiration.

Save the date of Sat 11th February from 9am to 1pm

Also tickets are going fast for the Sat evening at 8.30pm on 11th Feb show of TICKLED PINK. Over half of available tickets have been sold. Location is at Beachside Cafe at West Beach.

Follow up our Ian Roberts ASAP for seats at the KPR table if you are wanting to see several quality Fringe acts for entry of $30. Meal and drinks separate at bar prices. Be clear that there are also auctions and raffles on the night.

CLUB NEWS:

Bunnings BBQ

A special thankyou for your resilience under difficult conditions in getting the job done yesterday.
Not only was it very hot but there was added heat from BBQ itself. Brownie spent an hour in his pool after his cheffing shift.....and was well supported by Shiralee with the cheffing. Both teams in inimitable KPR style made the best of a difficult day .....and had some fun along the way.

This was a good guide for us that Airport Bunnings BBQ can now provide enough fundraising to make it worthwhile to request weekend dates. The net profit from yesterday was sales of $1281 less costs of $360 = net profit $921. This removes the cash float and allows for reusable stock.

Due to the heat, some customers bought drinks only, especially late in the day. My guess is if we had a more comfortable temperature then our sausage sales could have been 50% higher. This will make future shifts financially attractive.... and our dollar results from last week were pretty good considering.

Much has changed in the set up for Airport Bunnings BBQ. The prices are now far more attractive at $3.50 for sausage and $1.50 for cans.....sausages up by 40% on last years price of $2.50. Also Bunnings and Ikea customer numbers have now increased from past lower Covid levels and the Bunnings BBQ compliance for Covid is now much reduced. The Gazebo is now one not two tents, and numbers on shifts are less and shift hours are less. So there is a lot to like about the current set up.

There are a few learnings from this new arrangement which I have discussed with a few and we will make a few changes support shifts on hot days with extra people to start mid-shift Signage for Card and cash available. Signage that the Sausages are Gluten Free....and we have GF bread if specially requested....that surprised a few customers
Use some open tubs for drinks, so drink types can be easily identified and restocked buy cans at their cheapest in the cycle put the choices of cans on the front serving counter
we need our Council Food Service certificate exhibited some larger gloves for big fisted food handlers Classic Coke with Sugar was the most popular drink....consider for ordering Water bottle option always necessary spread of workloads with different cars/people bringing sausages, bread and onions, drinks we need to take our own KPR sausage holders as they were not there on day. Usually supplied by Bunnings.
If you have any suggestions to add to these then please let me know by email or phone.

Our next date is SUNDAY 12th February.
Hopefully most of us can fit this next one into our schedule.....with a few newbies to join the group.
This fundraiser has the capacity to make a positive impact to our regular KPR fundraising activities Future occasions will be easier. This was a learning experience for me as a first time Coordinator for the Bunnings BBQ. I was extremely grateful for the support and experience of John Jackson and Rob Chambers ....and the background work of Peter Johnson.

Thanks and cheers
Warren
Chair Community Service Committee.
