Presidents' Barbeque

President Ron extended warm wishes for a Happy New Year and shared hopes for a successful year in Rotary with everyone at the President's BBQ.

Kidman Parkers Alert

A gathering of Henley Beach Rotarians and a few Kidman Park crew for Norms 108th Birthday celebration on 24th December
Mandy and John Carter did a great job of sorting out the venue of the upstairs verandah at Southern Cross Care….plus the timing and gathering of a group from both clubs.
A few bottles of bubbly added to the occasion.

We did not clash with any visit from Norm's family. Then Simmo and Peter Brown called in to share in the celebrations.

Norm still had his spark to carry off the Happy Birthday chorus
Norm was in good spirits and good health and seemed to really enjoy his visitors.

Cheers

Rotary Vocational Service is one of the five Avenues of Service in Rotary International, along with Club Service, Community Service, International Service, and Youth Service. Vocational Service encourages and fosters:

1. High Ethical Standards: Members promote high ethical standards in business and professions, emphasising the importance of a strong personal code of ethics. This includes practicing integrity in work and recognising the worthiness of all useful occupations.

2. Recognising the Value of All Occupations: Vocational Service recognises the dignity and importance of all occupations as a way to contribute to society. It encourages Rotarians to contribute their skills and expertise to issues and challenges through their professions.

3. Service through Occupation: Members use their professional skills to contribute to projects and initiatives that provide a positive impact on the community. This can involve leveraging professional expertise to aid in local or international projects.

4. Guidance and Mentorship: Rotarians often mentor young professionals and provide guidance and support as they develop in their careers, helping them to develop their skill sets and understand their industries.

5. Networking: Encourages networking among professionals and creates opportunities for members to learn from each other, share career advice, and enhance professional and leadership skills.

Rotarians engage in vocational service in various ways, such as sharing their professional expertise with others, organising career guidance seminars, or creating vocational training opportunities to bridge gaps in skills and employment.

Bookmart

Recommences Saturday 11th January

Hi everyone,
There are 3 attachments.

Since we are due to start again at Bookmart this Saturday, 11th January I wanted to give the information that you need.

Firstly there is a sale from this Saturday 11th January - Saturday 8th February.
The poster will show what's on sale. All Proceeds go to support Breast and Prostate cancer.

There is the latest roster with only minor alterations.

I have also included all the contact phone numbers of the people who work at Bookmart.
This will give you an opportunity to contact anyone that you need to swap shifts with.
Please print them off so you always have them on hand.
Please try to swap and then let me know by text who is doing the shifts so I am aware of what is going on.

Club News:

I have also put 4 large jugs of water that are in the fridge.
In the hot weather I am aware that people will want cold water rather than tea or coffee.
Just fill them up again so there is always plenty of water for everyone.

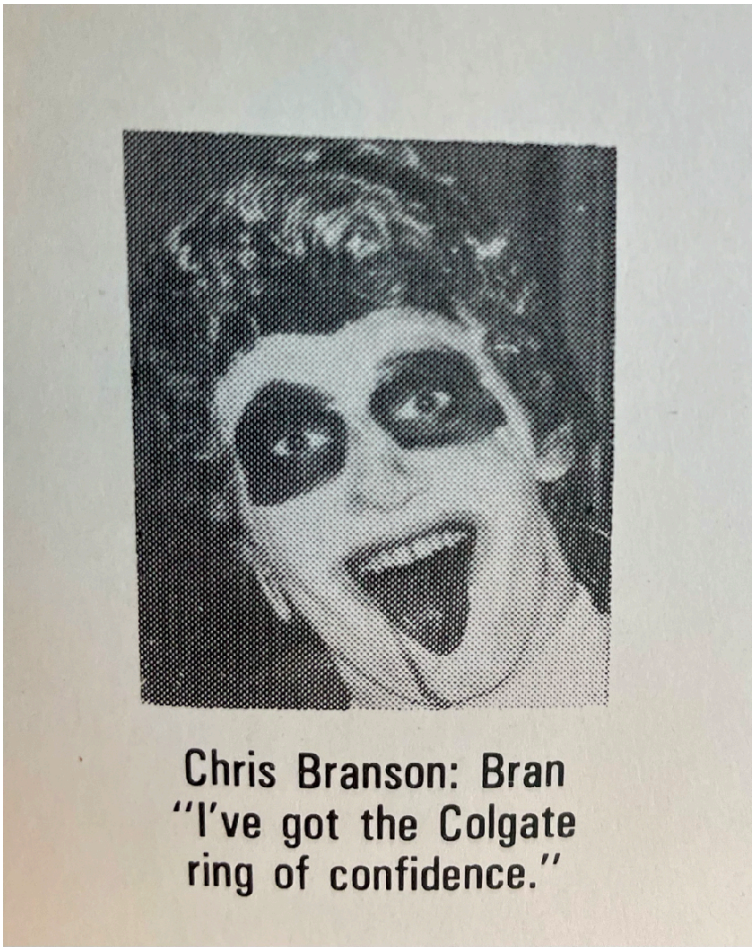

I will be away from Wednesday 8th January - Saturday 11th January visiting family in Melbourne.
Ron , my husband, will take my shift on Saturday morning.

Thank you everyone for all your support and hard work.

Note: the three attachments have been emailed to all those serving in the Bookmart and are not attached in the Bulletin.

Chris Branson: Bran
"I've got the Colgate ring of confidence."

We had a recent lunchdate with Chris Branson and two of his former teachers at Riverton High School

The old 1981 School Report came out of the archives and look what we found. Scary stuff!!!
Our Chris ("Bran" to his old school mates) was Head Prefect that year and was caught doing an Alice Cooper impersonation.

District News

Rotary Kidman Park

The Rotary Club of Salisbury invites all CG4 Clubs to come together for a presentation by Rotarian Teresa Evans on her takeaways about Rotary's Fit for Purpose Program.

As many may be aware Teresa, from the RC of Modbury Golden Grove, was one of 12 selected from District 9510 to attend an intensive two-day event tailored to equip clubs with the membership knowledge they need to flourish.

As per attached invitation, details are

Date Monday 20 January 2025

Time 6 for 6.30pm start, aiming to finish by 8.30pm

Venue Old Spot Hotel, Main North Road, Salisbury Heights

Cost $25 for 2 course dinner, drinks available from bar at own cost

RSVP By Monday, 13 January 2025 to Mary Purbrick Mbl 0439 721 777 or chickens1948@gmail.com (Please advise any special dietary requirements)

This evening is a great opportunity for CG4 Clubs to visit another Club, to get to know each other better whilst hearing about Teresa's experiences. Please distribute to your Members.

Please contact me for with any queries. Mignon Clark, Co-President
