Hi Kidman Parkers, Bookmarters and Others Interested

A reminder about our key Speaker for this Tues 28th January 6pm for 6.30(Venue is the excellent premises of SA Sea Rescue at Barcoo Road, West Beach as our usual Venue is unavailable)
The Speaker is Dr Nick Pourgievis who is an Orthopaedic Surgeon and who is a part owner and a Director with a Consortium of Specialists that own Western Hospital.
His Clinic/Office is on Level 2 at Western.

Nick is very aware that there have been mixed messages and confusion about the Western Hospital journey over the past few years in operations and financial aspects.
Nick is keen to clarify all aspects of that confusion. What does the short term look like for Western and then the long term.
For most of us, Western is our Hospital of choice. Likely our children were born there and we and our family have had operations there.
Come along and ask your questions ....what services cease and what are ongoing and what does the future look like for those individual services.
Again, key information for all of us. So bring your Partner and any of your connections that may be interested.
We have also put the Invitation out to members of SA Sea Rescue Squadron who may want to join us for the Speaker after 7pm with close at 8pm

This is a Speaker and topic not to be missed.
To assist catering numbers (and if there are dietary needs) if you are bringing a guest or coming along as a visitor, then can you please email Chris Branson by the preceding Friday 5pm.
email cdbranson@outlook.com

The Venue of SA Sea Rescue will lead to this being a night of difference. We will be having an ample and tasty Subway meal (thanks Barbara Wheatcroft for organising).
Cost will be $17 pp ....in that we need to cover their bar attendant. We will likely be seated informally on the Balcony of their upstairs Anchorage Room....and if the weather suits we may stay.
outside after the meal for the Speaker presentation. It has shelter from the sun and will be an appealing informal atmosphere for the evening.

So come along and hear the facts of what has and will be happening at YOUR Western Hospital!!

Guest speaker Scott Searle with Rotarian Warren Hobbs

Bio of our 21st Jan Speaker Scott Searle

Scott is General Manager of Fairland, the group that are developing St James of Kidman Park, being a derivative of Fairmont Homes
Scott has worked for Fairland for 8 years and his original qualification was Town Planning.
His previous roles were at Onkaparinga Council and NFP Anglicare.
Also he was a Project Manager at Roxby Downs during the proposed Expansion period.

Scott was involved in a Rotary Family, with his father being a long standing member of Murray Bridge Rotary Club, and hence Scott over his formative years attended many Rotary events of that club.

The topic of Scott's presentation was the exciting St James development and its community overlap and impact in the Western Suburbs.
The relevant topic and excellent Speaker attracted 8 visitors on the night, several being some our volunteers from Bookmart.

This was an excellent and balanced presentation by Scott. Fairland will be involved on site for over the next 10 years.
Scott spoke of the "Green Spine" and progressed trees to be planted on over 20% of the site. The development will enable river access by all of the likely 400 properties.
It is a huge site of 11 hectares, which is the biggest non-govt development site in Adelaide.
The St James name comes from the name of St James that dated back to the 1840's
He also covered difficult aspects of traffic and parking for the development. The traffic goal is that there will only be similar traffic vehicle levels to the Met Cash period when it was common to have B Doubles in and out of the large supermarket distribution facility.....with many employees and vehicles.
Plus there will be Butcher, Baker etc shops likely in the North East commercial precinct of the site.
