Guest Speakers,

Jodie Knighton and

Adam Reed from

Adelaide Airport Limited

Jodie and Adam gave an insightful presentation on the proposed $600 million expansion of Adelaide Airport. It is set to significantly enhance the airport's infrastructure and capacity, positioning it as a key player in Australia's aviation landscape. This ambitious project aims to accommodate the growing demand for air travel and improve passenger experiences, reflecting the increasing importance of the airport as a gateway to South Australia.

The expansion, expected to be finished by mid-2028, will include:

* major expansions to the terminal
* expansion of the check-in hall
* latest technology for check in kiosks
* more bag drop facilities
* more aircraft parking spaces
* new domestic gate lounges
* aerobridges
* offices in the northern terminal.

The terminal upgrade will include a new international departures gate, new play space, sensory room and gate seating upgrades – the latter including business hubs and lounge seating.

Check-in hall expansion at the southern end, increasing capacity by more than 1500sq m – equivalent to five tennis courts.

Northern terminal expansion of 10,000sq m, starting by early 2026, including new domestic gate lounges and aerobridges.

Club News:

Rotary Kidman Park

Southern terminal expansion by more than 5500sq m, starting by early 2027, including two new domestic and three new regional gates.

Up to nine more aircraft parking positions at the terminal's northern and southern ends, delivered progressively over the next three years.

Security screening upgrades, including body scanners and 3D X-ray bag scanners, will be finished by the end of the year.

The P2 outdoor car park, next to the multi-storey car park, had been recently opened in advance of having to cut long-term parking spaces where aircraft parking bays were being built.

The expansion is also expected to have significant economic benefits for the region. It is projected to create thousands of jobs during the construction phase and in the long term, as increased air traffic can lead to more tourism, trade, and business opportunities in South Australia. The investment aligns with the state's strategy to bolster its economy and attract international visitors.

Overall, the $600 million expansion of Adelaide Airport is a strategic initiative that aims to modernise the facility, boost economic growth, and enhance the travel experience for passengers, ensuring it remains competitive in the evolving aviation sector.

Club News:

Co-President Rob Hughes had the pleasure of presenting a Paul Harris Fellow with Sapphire to Frank Bunnik, who has made outstanding contributions to his “fellow man”.

Rob went on to say:

“Frank Bunnik’s record is quite extensive and goes back a long time, over 20 years

For decades, Frank has travelled to many corners of the Globe. During his travels he always identifies people and communities in need and has helped in different ways, often financing small projects, making huge differences to peoples lives.

The main “hands-on” period started when in December 2004 the Indian Ocean was rocked by a Tsunami. Frank immediately flew to Sri Lanka to help with the cleaning up, repairing and rebuilding, he came back, recharged the batteries and went back again for another period. This time, his brother, RotarianTom Bunnik went with him who was relieved some time later by Rotarian Peter Farquhar. During his later regular travels to Sri Lanka, he always found little projects in villages to support the locals.

In 2014 our club became involved in a Rotary project, to renovate buildings in Papua New Guinea. Frank, Tom, Peter Farquhar and Stuart Ghent went there to help with building for two weeks. On return Frank organised sending a container with school articles and class furniture to Port Moresby.

Other key achievements where Frank and his family have been involved include:

He organised a fundraiser in the Bunnik building for Fred Hollows Foundation, collecting around $ 25,000

He has organised the assembly of “Birthing Kits” for delivery to poorer countries around the World, those that don’t have access to birthing facilities. As well as involving Bunnik Tours staff in this event to increase the output of products, Frank also provided the venue and sponsorship. Not to be overlooked, are the hundreds of hours of his own time he put in to prepare these events.

He has organised and supervised the assembly of “mechanical hands”. Frank provided the venue and prepared this project whereby club members put together artificial, mechanical hands to enable persons who lost one or both hands in war torn areas, to live more independently. In general, the recipients were victims of wartime.

In between his travels, he still finds time to attend and contribute to our Club meetings, cook sausages at the Bunnings BBQ, be part of the Meals on Wheels roster and, behind the scenes, regularly puts his hands in his pockets to show his generosity. In recent years he has raised significant funds for the Pink and Blue Swim by raising sponsorship for him swimming in the event and also sponsorship for him jumping out of an aeroplane with a parachute.

Frank has already been awarded a Paul Harris Fellow award back in 2012, so tonight, we want to award Frank with an even higher recognition, The Paul Harris Fellow with Sapphire.

Over the years, Frank and his family have touched and improved living conditions and lives of many people throughout the World. Congratulations Frank, Thank You from us and on behalf of all those many many people you've helped".

Bunnings and Bookmart

In photo, Anna and Eve(Adelaide Airport Bunnings Activities Organisers) collecting books from Bookmart for Bunnings Book Week. The total cane to $163 but it was rounded up to $200.

Our connections at Bunnings have expanded greatly and it is working well for them as well.
It was great that Jenny Harris visited Bookmart to meet Anna and Eve. At a guess they will be regular visitors to our Bookmart….and likely with the Bookmarks (they took 200) that they pass out there will be plenty more Bunnings customers also visiting Bookmart

Hi Warren,

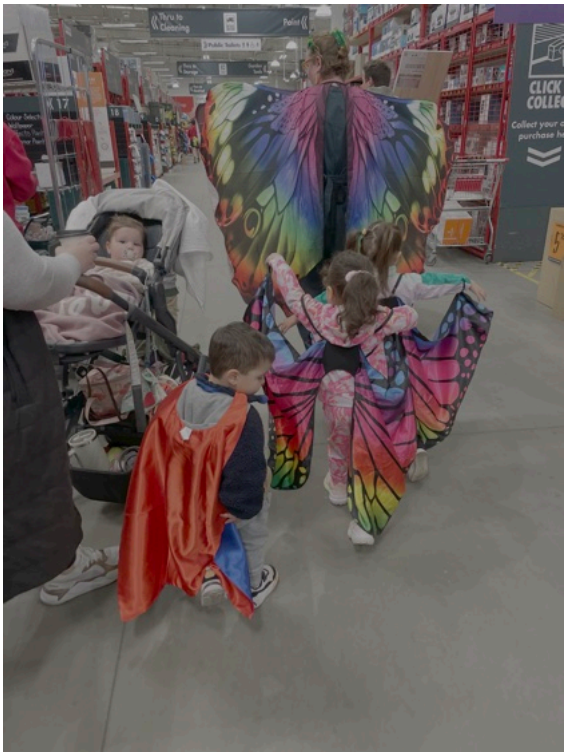

We just wanted to thank you and the Rotary Bookmart. We have been gifting books in store and organised a ‘Blind Date with a book’ for the team.

We even had a Book Week parade in store for toddlers. It was a great success and plenty of the bookmarks have been going out to customers.

Kind Regards

SNIPPETS OF KPR LAUNCH OF FRIENDS OF ROTARY (FoR) HELD 19th August

The concept of Friends of Rotary has been used successfully by other Rotary Clubs and in particular we have followed the successful path of Barossa Valley RC. The current Pres of BVRC James Dunn joined us on the night and they have been very helpful to our journey.
Our KPR path has a key extra dimension with local Community Organisations also involved . The majority of those Community groups have evolved from our dozen Community Partners of KPR that are acknowledged each week in our Bulletin

The Community organisations that were represented at our Launch (some with multiple attendees) were City of Charles Sturt, Westward Ho Golf Club, West Beach Parks, Amadio Wines, Bunnik Tours, SA Sea Rescue Squadron, West Beach SLSC, Pink & Blue Swim, Adelaide Sailing Club, Friends of Lot 101, Safe PETS Safe FAMILIES, Escape to Better Foundation, Bookmart. Those other Organisations that were apologies were Airport Bunnings, Bendigo Community Bank WB, Robarra Broodstock Sanctuary & Hatchery. This is an impressive group of Community Organisations the majority of which are based in and around the West Beach area. KPR have met at West Beach for over 20 years.
The attendees from these were 24 people in key leader roles. We were delighted that 4 Councillors from City of Charles Sturt joined us for the evening and have spoken of regular monthly FoR visits.

There were also 26 visitors who are past visitors to KPR, friends and colleagues of Members of KPR.
One key visitor was a professional photographer Tim Ash from his own business of Trace Elements Media who did a great job in producing some great memories
FYI mob 0414 226685 if you or your club has a future need
The other group was our own KPR members and Partners of 40 in number
If you want to total up those numbers it was 90 people in attendance, hence 90 meals which balanced well. Chef Paul and the hospitality team at Westward Ho handled the numbers with great skill. The alternate drop meal of steak and chicken drew many favourable comments and our 6 Dietary attendees were catered for as requested.
Thank you to Colin Anderson and his Westward Ho team.

The evening started adjacent in the Sprigg Bar which has recently been magically refurbished and it is an impressive Venue . Pre-Dinner drinks were superbly handled by our Sponsors Amadio Wines. Paul Amadio and Michael Calderisi did a great job in quelling early thirst with choices of quality Amadios Pinot Gris, Shiraz and Champagne. Paul also supported our Launch with 6 donated bottles. One of Kevin Tiggemann's guests liked what he was tasting and became the proud purchaser of 3 dozen Amadio wines totalling $700 ("best Pinot Gris I have ever tasted" and a dozen purchased after the event by another discerning admirer. Paul Amadio loved the occasion for more reasons than the sales and he will likely be a regular feature at future monthly FoR gatherings.

Our Speakers Adam Reed and Jodie Knighton (from Adelaide Airport Ltd) gave us an informative update on the past, present and future of Adelaide Airport and its surrounds. We are all impacted by the Airport so it is highly relevant to all our lives hence it was a key community topic handled well by Adam and Jodie.

Our Co-Pres Rob Hughes gave the assembled group some background and history of KPR. Then made a Paul Harris Fellow presentation to our much respected Frank Bunnik. Frank has been a wonderful contributor in actions and dollars for over 20 years The Bunnik family operate the Bunnik Tours business and KPR is proud to have Bunnik Tours as a valued Sponsor

The future of Friends of Rotary will consist of many of the Community Organisations listed above as well as those on our Visitors list.
The combined group of key Community Organisations, our regular visitors and our usual members will meet on each third Tues each month from 6pm to 8.15pm
Our Speakers are already now in place for the next several months, and will cover key Community topics that reference the local West Beach community and broader Adelaide and SA community aspects. Each meeting, we will usually have a support Speaker from one of our Community Organisations speaking on their history and their future plans.
A guide to the next few months key Speakers and Community topics is 16/9 A Panel of key leaders of our West Beach Organisations discussing key impacts and concerns of Algal Bloom for their organisation
21/10 Stephen Pallaras (KC and former DPP) hard hitting approach to what the Law should achieve for our Community
18/11 Lissi Whyte CEO of Robarra Hatchery at West Beach….one of the largest businesses in West Beach that is a quiet achiever exporting to many countries

A feature of the Launch evening was the arranged hosting of our visitors by our KPR Members. The Dinner Tables were combinations of our 3 groups and our visitors were hopefully made to feel at home.

In summary, a night of difference, and a gathering of numerous Community Organisations and interested visitors together with our KPR Members. The emphasis on the future of Friends of Rotary is relationship not finance

Some key thank yous in reflecting on the Launch occasion

1. To our guests in supporting the event by coming along….thank you!!

Club News:

2. To our Club Members…..this was an overall club event and it needed the support from all our members whether directly with hands on or indirectly as hosts etc ….thank you!!
3. To those directly involved in the lead up …well done

From the KPR Engagement Committee
